New for 2024, New Designers are launching a sister event, Future Visions which will expand on what we provide for design students to include opportunities for your graduating class to connect with galleries, gain press coverage and find opportunities to begin their career as an artist. With our experience in organising New Designers and our sister event, London Art Fair we feel we are in a good position to be able to create a meaningful offering to connect your students with galleries and opportunities for work after graduating.

If you are unfamiliar with the show, New Designers is an annual exhibition that brings together the best graduate design talent from across the UK. Our event is aimed at connecting these graduates with professionals in their industry to help them begin their career. In addition to this we also run a Schools Programme which Universities use to recruit into their courses.

WHY EXHIBIT?

Opportunity to meet:

- Over 15000 visitors including key industry experts and a design hungry public
- Galleries looking for new graduate talent
- Opportunities to market yourself and sell directly to Industry and visitors
- Schools' groups of GCSE and A-level students looking for their next step

- Give graduates the opportunity to gain valuable experience, insight and advice that will guide their next steps into the world of design
- 2023 saw 35 industry awards and prizes and 25 placement/internship prizes, with even more targeted towards Fine Art & Photography for 2024
